Culter hillwalking club has no members who are qualified leaders or instructors. Therefore, anyone volunteering to assist the club on a meet cannot be held responsible for other members' welfare. Members must be aware they are solely responsible for themselves at all times and adhere to safety guidance.

Hillwalking and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury and death. Those participating in these activities should be aware of the risks and accept the responsibility for their own actions and involvement. No responsibility can be accepted by Culter Hillwalking club committee, members, guests, or co-ordinators of walks for any mishap, which may occur, during a meet.

Programme details may be subject to change due to weather conditions or other circumstances.

Dogs must be kept on a short lead at all times.
